

Youth Enterprise Trust's own Woodstock Farm are pleased to present an afternoon with a fundraising concert for In-Tent For Change Intervention Program assisting disadvantaged youth within our local community.

John Williamson

Sunday 10th September

Gates open from 12:00pm with main show starting at 2:10pm.

Join us for an afternoon in the country overlooking the mystique of the Tamborine Mountain Range on our evergreen grass amphitheatre while John Williamson with Jeff McCormack and special guests, perform all his hits. Sing along with the family or friends or that special someone.

A range of food trucks and drinks are available onsite, bring a picnic blanket or chair and settle in for an afternoon you won't forget. If you're after something a little special, join us in our VIP marquee, overlooking the Tamborine Mountain Range, for a pre-show meet & greet and Q&A with the man himself, John Williamson; plus a 3.5hr beverage and canape package, and private seating area with the best view in the house for the main show!

John Williamson is a true legend of Australian music, With honours including the ARIA Hall of Fame, an Order of Australia, 28 Golden Guitar Awards, Australian Roll of Renown induction, 52 albums—including 20 original studio albums, over 5 million albums sold and thousands of shows performed. At the age of 77 and with a life very well lived, John Williamson has opted to take slower pace these days, with opportunities to see the icon live far less than they once were. Opportunities this special, even less so. Joining John Williamson will be Brisbane's own Briana Dinsdale, Tamworth's CMAA 2022 Keith Urban Scholarship award winner and rising international star.
